Brag Sheet for Counselor Letter of Recommendation

It's important that your counselor know all the great things that you're doing, as well as any important information about challenges or obstacles you may have faced through your High School career. This Brag Sheet will only be seen by your counselor, and we use this as our guide to writing your letter of recommendation. Please be as thorough as possible! Your counselor cannot write your letter of recommendation until you complete this survey.

Completed Brag Sheets are due by Friday, June 16, 2022.

Please note that once you request your first transcript for college in your senior year or prior, your counselor has 10 school days to complete and send the counselor letter of recommendation.

Please contact your School Counselor with any questions.

1. List any careers and/or an intended major that you are considering and why.
2. What is your proudest academic or personal accomplishment? Also, please name any Academic Honors or Awards you may have won.
3. Are there any personal circumstances that have impacted your academic performance in High School? Please note, anything you share can be mentioned in your counselor's letter.
4. What academic skills have you demonstrated in High School that provide evidence that you will be successful in College. Be specific, and please provide a concrete example of how you learned or utilize that skill.
5. How have you changed over the course of the last three years?
6. List your in-school activities in order of importance to you. Please include years involved, positions held, and/or significant contributions. Please use bullets or numbers to separate.
7. List your out of school activities. These could include jobs, internships, volunteer opportunities, creative work, hobbies or interests. Please use bullets or numbers to separate.
8. What are the one or two activities that are most important to you? Describe in detail your involvement and what makes it so important.
9. What would you most want us to tell colleges about you, your life, or your future plans?
10. *Parent/Guardian: What are his/her out of school interests and activities that may not be known at school.
11. *Parent/Guardian: What are the qualities and traits that make your child who they are?
12. *Parent/Guardian: In what ways do you feel your student is well prepared for their post-secondary experience? This could include academic, personal, social, and any other pertinent information.
13. *Parent/Guardian: What would you most want us to tell colleges about your student?
